FHS Parents and Guardians,

The summer break is almost here, but we would like to inform you that final exams will take place May 17 – 22, 2019. Final exams are cumulative and count for 20% of the student’s semester grade. Final exams will not be given early and missed exams could result in a failing grade for your student. The information collected from the final exams will help us gain valuable data to better prepare for the upcoming school year. We will have 2 exams per day starting on Friday, May 17th, and we will release students afterwards. Exams will begin promptly at 7:40 a.m., and it’s extremely important for everyone to arrive on time. Breakfast is available for all students prior to the exam, and middle school students will eat lunch prior to dismissal. High school students will be released each day at 11:44 a.m. after the completion of their second exam and will have the opportunity to eat lunch in the cafeteria.

Just a reminder, our elementary campus WILL NOT have an early release schedule, and our buses will run at their normal time of 3:40 p.m. Bus riders and/or students who cannot be picked up early will be relocated into classrooms at 12:00 p.m. During that time, students will be expected to finish class reviews and complete enrichment assignments.

Please support our campus by encouraging your student to do their best each day. Thanks again for trusting us with your child’s education and feel free to email or call if you have any questions.

Best Regards,

Edgar Rodriguez
Frankston High School Principal
